

We have a CHALLENGE for you!

Castile Soap Challenge: Research everyday uses for Castile soap and design a new product.

- After you have done your research, use the information to design and create a household product that you can start using in your day-to-day life.
- Be proud of what you have created, and share your idea with your family and friends.

