CONSTITUTION OF GIRL GUIDES VICTORIA

November 2021

GIRL GUIDES VICTORIA

INTRODUCTION

The Girl Guides Association (of the United Kingdom) pursuant to and in terms of the Royal Charter granted to it, formed within the State of Victoria, a Council, known as the State Council of the Girl Guides Association of Victoria, Australia, for the purpose of carrying on, in Victoria, the business of the United Kingdom Association.

It subsequently delegated all its powers to the Victorian State Council. In 1952, the Victorian State Parliament duly passed an Act, No 5654, (the Act) incorporating the Victorian State Council as the “Girl Guides Association of Victoria”, such association being autonomous and endowed with the powers of a corporation as prescribed by relevant legislation of the Victorian Parliament. On 5 December 1995 the State Council resolved that the Girl Guides Association of Victoria be known as Guides Victoria. On 5 April 2008 the State Council resolved that the Girl Guides Association of Victoria be known as Girl Guides Victoria.

The Constitution derives its authority from the Act of the Victorian Parliament, and is required to be consistent with the terms and provisions of the Act. Accordingly, the State Council is the body corporate of Girl Guides Victoria, and empowered and entitled to administer all the affairs of Girl Guides Victoria, subject to the Act.

Girl Guides Victoria is the statutory body, which provides the structure by which girls and women in Victoria pursue the principles and values of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. The business of Girl Guides Victoria is conducted through its office in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

In this document we have used the pronoun “she” as a default term to indicate our organizational philosophy about the empowerment and capabilities of women. The pronoun “she” can represent any gender except where roles require that women fill them.
