GIRL GUIDES
AUSTRALIA
VICTORIA

Dear Fellow Trefoil Guild Members,

Winter is fast closing in on us. I do hope your Trefoil Guild has somewhere cosy to meet during the next few months. If not, head for the nearest warm café. What will your Trefoil Guild be doing to keep your members interested and warm? I'd love some photos of your activities – please consider sending some to me at trefoilguild@guidesvic.org.au.

I've had a very busy month with enjoyable visits to Guilds, as well as the more serious working visits to do Child Safe Child Friendly sessions. I thank all the Guilds who have invited me along. It has been lovely to meet everyone, whether it was serious or fun.

In mid-June, I'm travelling to Adelaide to meet with the Australian Trefoil Guild Adviser, Sharyn Smith – Anderson, her team and the State Trefoil Guild Advisers from other states. We will be meeting for 4 days to discuss, develop and to enjoy the others' company.

If you have any comments or burning questions that you would like me to take to the group, please contact me.

Jill

There was a buzz in the air on 6th May, Coronation Day. King Charles and Queen Camilla were being crowned, but just a few hours earlier, Jill, Queen of Trefoil Guilds, was also crowned. It was my privilege to knight Lady Travel-a-lot.

That afternoon, there were about 60 lovely ladies all in their finery, raising the roof with their excited chatter at the North Metro Trefoil Guild's Coronation Celebration. There were friends seeing friends they hadn't seen in a while, bubbles, chatter and a wonderful quiz based on King Charles and his forbearers, and of course lovely food.

The North Metro TG were at the crossroads of should we close, or should we do something that will give us a bang? Well, were they ever responsible for a big bang. Everyone had a fantastic afternoon. Congratulations NMTG, you have shown us the way to revive your Trefoil Guild. We look forward to hearing more about your adventures.

And it was just a FUN quiz.

VALE MARY WITNISH

Girrahween Trefoil Guild sadly farewelled a long-time member of our Guild on 23rd March, 2023: Mary Witnish of Maryborough, Victoria.

Mary joined the Girrahween Trefoil Guild after spending many years in Guiding as a District Leader, and District Commissioner of Maryborough and District Guides. At one time she also held the position of District Badge Secretary in 1978. She was a very willing worker, enjoying her time at our various camps and functions in the ensuing years.

Mary was a guide, Brownie Leader and started in 1968 as Lieutenant, and was then Captain of 1st Maryborough Guiding Unit from 1969-70. She will be very sadly missed by all her Guiding family.

My Silver Southern Cross Challenge

With my wonderful mentors by my side, I learned how to knit a blanket in basket weave stitch and crochet a blanket on the diagonal I made for charity. Some I will do again.

I also made a wall hanging that holds soft toys, out of rope. A pet rope was made by my Girl Guides. He is 75cms long with eyes on one end, and we can practise knots with him. For my Arts Challenge (Arts for All Ages), I made a wheel car out of rope. I never want to do that again!

History is boring! Not when you ask the right questions – why do we cross our fingers? Why do we touch wood? I found the answers to lots of strange superstitions we don't often think about.

I took everyone to Switzerland (in their imagination). We learned that they do have a summer and a Swiss game, and learned all about Our Chalet, modelled the uniform and practised the Promise. We also had a Raclette (look it up, tastes great).

My attempt to Protect Tomorrow was to reuse household items and make them useful again. I made a mat out of rags, fridge magnets out of bottle tops, a trivet out of a jigsaw, and gift bags out of cereal boxes. It was so much fun; you will be surprised who comes up with the best ideas.

Give it a go, involve everyone, it gives you a new topic at the next morning tea. I have had so much fun and learned so much and met so many people, there is no downside. You get to choose your own challenges, your own mentors and take as long as you like to get it done. GO FOR IT!

The Trefoil Guild Members who attend The Red Hill Dolphin Trefoil Guild AGM keep coming back each year, and bringing their friends along as well. It is always a great day. On 22nd May, the Rosebud Guide Hall was a buzz with more guests than ever. It was lovely to stand back and observe ladies greeting each other with delight and friendship. There were hugs and chatter everywhere. The trading table at this event is always well stocked with lovely items, crafts and produce made by the TG members. The trade was brisk.

The AGM for the day was concise and to the point. A large – ish number of members were presented with their "Years of Membership" awards. These ranged from 25 years to 65 years of service. Trefoil Guild members are certainly here for the long haul.

Roxy the Story Dog and her handler were the Guest Speakers. Roxy has been trained to accompany children who need a little more help with reading. The children read to Roxy, who does not pass judgement on them.
